

Master Gardeners Compost Tea

All Organic

What is Compost Tea?

Compost Tea is a liquid extract of compost that contains plant nutrients and micro nutrients, plant growth compounds and beneficial microorganisms.

Is Compost Tea a Fertilizer?

No, Compost Tea is not a fertilizer. It helps a plants natural ability to use nutrients more efficiently. It is not a fungicide or pesticide. It may improve a plants ability to resist pests and diseases. Compost Tea should be used in combination with other good organic practices to improve the health of your garden.

How is Compost Tea Made?

Master Gardeners Compost Tea is made by steeping finished compost in water to extract beneficial microorganism and compounds. The solution is aerated to multiply the beneficial organisms to produce a high quality compost tea.

How is Compost Tea Used?

Use as a foliar spray on plant leaves or apply to soil as a drench on *House Plants * Vegetable and Flower Plants * Shrubs * Roses.*

What are the Benefits of Using Compost Tea?

Increases plant growth

Provides nutrients to plants

Provides beneficial organisms

Helps suppress diseases

Garden Safer

Protect the Environment